Masquerade Ice Carnival

There was a fair attendance of skaters, in costume, at the masquerade carnival held last Friday on the local rink. The Brass Band livened up the skating with catchy music during the evening. The prizes were awarded as follows:

J. Duncan, best dressed gent; Mrs. Lucas and Miss Curtis, best dressed couple; Olive Garries, best dressed lady; Ruth Martin best girl comic; M. Gehrke, best dressed boy; Gracie Garries, best dressed girl; A. Garries, boy comic.

During the evening a curling match was played between the Bank staff and four skips, in which the Bankers were snowed under, 17 to 5.

The deferred annual meeting of the Monitor School District will be held in the Schoolhouse, tonight, at 8 o'clock.

Considerable interest is being shown regarding the development of the G. W. V. A. Branch, to be established here in the near future.

Information has been received to the effect that our plans are progressing favorably and doubtless we shall be able to announce the glad news soon.

WRECK ON C. P. R Local Man Badly Injured

The west-bound express from Coronation to Lacombe was derailed, on Tuesday morning, one mile out of Erskine. The whole train, with the exception of the engine, was derailed by a broken rail. Four members of the crew were injured, and a number of the passengers were shaken up. The mail clerk, L. H. Woodrow, of Monitor, was badly crushed about the head and is in a very serious condition. He was removed to the hospital at Red Deer. His wife and E. P. Woodrow, his brother, left for Red Deer immediately after receiving word of the accident. Express-messenger Sheldon had his collar bone broken and a shoulder dislocated, and Conductor Niven cut on the head.

The wreckage was removed and traffic resumed by Tuesday night.

A wire was received yesterday afternoon, from Red Deer, stating that L. H. Woodrow was progressing very favorably and was practically out of danger.

A few more warm days like yesterday and the women will want to start house-cleaning, and other springtime pleasures.

After two showers of rain in one week, in the middle of January, this part of Alberta will soon rival the Coast as a winter resort.

E. P. Stewart left yesterday on a short visit to Calgary.

Mrs. S. Duncan is visiting her relatives in Wilkie and Rosetown, Sask.

BUSY BIDEFORD

After the long period of flu restrictions village life is beginning to assume its old conditions. Church is held now every Sunday, as usual, and all interested are asked to attend. We are passing through an unusually quiet time in Basy B, but when the boys come home from "over there" we shall hope to celebrate with a social night that will bring together everyone, young and old, in a spirit of jollity and hospitality with a deeper feeling of the great gratitude we owe to those who faced hell in Hunsland.

Wedding bells were heard somewhere around Bideford, not church chiming, but after the order of the time-honored chivaree. Clara Beryll and F. Staples are the happy couple and everybody wishes them the best of blessings.

Hearing Bideford's population is diminishing at an alarming rate, the Stork kindly flew our way and left a fine little kiddet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Huff, at the Station. The Stork did not say "goodbye" but "au revoir" till the Springtime. At that rate we shall soon have to increase our school accommodation. Let 'em all come, the more the merrier.

The Women's Institute met after a long period of inactivity owing to flu conditions. Mrs. P. Robinson was hostess and all the ladies of the town attended. The occasion was the annual meeting and election of officers. Mrs. N. D. Robinson was re-elected as President, Mrs. Staley 1st V-Pres, Mrs. Conquest 2nd V-Pres, Miss Inkster Sec-Treas. The next meeting will be on Feb. 8th, at the home of Mrs. MacLeod. All ladies are asked to come and partake of the benefits of the Institute.

An apple a day keeps the doctor away, and as we have no Dr. here in town it seems as if we have been pretty busy with the apple boxes. To keep them healthy give the children one first thing in the morning, it costs less than physic and quack pills.

Thanks to a reader who sends this picture of the fellows over there who get a line from their girls over here. And it's Hell-with-the-door-shut from morning till night, Sleepless, unshaven, unkempt and a "sight," Dog-tired and lousy, and smothered in gore, Some change from the "Sissy," eh, you knew before? He's holding a man's job over in France, Flirting with Death, with a mighty slim chance. Looks like a Holo, and feels like a Bum, Not caring "TWO WHOOPS" if the love letters come.

From the Miltons of this town, who are now in Vancouver, we received a very fine collection of color views of the beauties of B. C. Yessir!—the mountains, forests, rivers and sea are calling, calling. When one looks at the treeless flatness around and remembers the dry thirsty gardens that didn't grow a thing, we cannot help envying the fortunate folk who live in the misty, moisty maritime provinces.

THRIFT IS PATRIOTIC
COMMON SENSE SAYS
HON. T. W. MCGARRYProsperity Should Not Hide Need
Of Saving

Years of progress and prosperity have tended—quite naturally—to make Canadians forgetful of the fine, homely virtue of Thrift which was so admirable a trait in the character of our Canadian pioneers. As a people we do not know what Thrift means, as it is understood in Great Britain and in Europe—the small daily personal economies which enable a man not only to live within his income, whatever it may be; but to save something every year, and which in the aggregate makes a nation rich. France (prior to the war) is a striking example of a nation made rich by individual thrift.

To-day Canada is facing a big war debt incurred in defending our country from a ruthless foe. We have got to foot the bill in one way or another, and what easier or more profitable way than by saving our money and lending it at good interest to the Government in the form of War Savings Stamps? Thrift is patriotic common-sense.

Small investments in Government securities have been the foundation of many a fortune, and the War Savings Stamps system ought to garner an enormous harvest of small change from Canadians, old and young, rich and poor alike.

Note and Comment

We have been asked as to when the local school was to be re-opened. We cannot give a definite answer to this, but as the annual school meeting will be held tonight, the answer will no doubt be forthcoming then.

It is to be hoped that there will be a full turnout of the ratepayers at this meeting.

All mammals, when in proper environment and under normal conditions, naturally take on flesh during pregnancy, the reserve being used in milk production when the young is born. As we expect a dairy cow to give much more milk than her calf requires it is only reasonable that she should be in extra good condition of flesh at calving time. A further consideration is the procuring of strong, well-nourished calves which cannot be expected from poorly-nourished cows. Grain fed during the dry period has been found to give greater returns than the same amount fed after calving, these returns being in the form of a more vigorous calf and increased milk production. To have the cows in proper condition of flesh, one of the first requisites is to give them sufficient rest between the lactation periods. The cow that is milked up to within two or three weeks of calving may pile up quite a record for that year but she will surely fall off in the next lactation period. Each cow should have from six to eight weeks of a rest period.

A Fine Motor Trip

The following is a description of a motor trip taken by R. A. N. Craig and family, from this point to Portland, Ore. and is part of letter written to the Editor.

"Arrived safely after a fine trip through Calgary, Sweet Grass, Glacier National Park, and Spokane, thence down the Columbia Highway to Portland.

It may have been dry up in Alberta, but it has been just as bad on this side of the line, except in the irrigated districts. In Montana there was nothing, we did not see so much as a stack of feed put up for winter feeding. The Government had to help the farmers.

The Glacier Park may rival the Rocky Mountain Park in natural beauty, but it has nothing else. From Glacier to Sandpoint, a distance of about 250 miles, the trail is through mountains covered with dense pine trees reaching sometimes 150 ft in height. Through this part of the trail we did some wonderful climbing, Glacier is 3200 ft in altitude, and Maroon 3000 ft. From Maroon to Libby, on the Kootenai Canyon, is down grade a distance of 100 miles through dense forest, in which we didn't see more than a dozen houses. This was the lonely part of our trip. From Libby to Troy was the thrilling part. The road is blasted out of the canyon wall, sometimes as high as 300 ft, with a wall of rock on one side and the rapids 300 ft below you on the other, and the road little broader than the car. Never again—when next I do that part of the trip I'll take a flying machine. That was the longest 22 miles I ever travelled. Troy to Spokane the road was better but not so good as we were led to believe.

From Spokane to Hood River the road runs through a desert almost all the way, nothing but sand, sand, and more sand, with little oasis of irrigated districts dotted here and there. These districts are all devoted to fruit growing and are well worth seeing.

From Hood River to Portland down the Columbia Highway through the Coast Mountains is a Paradise for tourists, well worth coming all the way to see. As far as scenery and roads are concerned this part leaves nothing to ask for.
